About This Game

On a road trip for Halloween, your car breaks down on the side of the road. A strange set of circumstances follows, as a young child appears screaming for your help and then disappears into the corn fields. Now that you've been stranded here in the middle of nowhere, you must wander into the cornfields to save this child - whoever she is. You will encounter many challenges along the way that may surprise and frighten you. This game is specifically built for VR and contains realistic graphics that will immerse you in the environment. Pitchfork is both terrifying and enjoyable, with a story line that will keep you guessing.

Very meh overall. Some of the cover art was really cool looking, but most of the actual comic wasn't all that great. Not hating on the artist because it's way better than anything I could do, but it just doesn't hold up to the cover art. Also, Rei is basically a copy/pasted Sinon from SAO. While I like the premise of the story and the world building, the writing itself was really bad.

I got it for 49 cents on sale because I enjoyed the Sword of Asumi VN, but I would not recommend anyone getting this graphic novel, especially for full price.. Been playing it on and off and for the price, its worth it, its a money/time budgeting simulator that's a lot of fun. It starts off really hard at first with you trying to budget your time with your avatars current needs and wants but once you get the ball rolling it gets a lot more interesting. You can own houses, start multiple businesses, play with the stock market, become a landlord of multiple properties, own all kinds of collectables, and do many other things. The game is well worth the price in my opinion, also dev is pretty active in the forum and does frequent updates and takes suggestions into consideration.. Feels like i'm playing some mod of half life but in point and click genre due to the fact that there are robot soldiers in game that are called "the combine" and the game feels so helpless just like half life 2 is. The story is an interesting one and gameplay is great. I like how the game gives you plenty of time to flee from enemies in some of the missions.. I can not get my ball in front of me to serve and it always on my left behind me if anyone can help that be great because I really want to play it . Shoot Enemies. Pass the ball. Score/Assist. DIE. Repeat. Rated 69/21 NGI.. Pretty fun. Ive played every motocross, supercross there has ever been and this one is pretty good. So far most of the online tracks are pretty terrible though. Probably made by non riders, no rhythm or sense to most of them. Not smooth at all. If you make a custom track test it out thoroughly please!. Tactical genital poking.

Looking forward to online multiplayer.. There's a reason we left Gradius behind. It's a really faithful remake and is beautiful and crisp and etc. But why did you have to remake a \u2665\u2665\u2665\u2665\u2665\u2665 game?. I edit zuma fun, simple enough and captivating. Worth it!!! :). Game: They only married you for the crown.

Me: How rude!

Would be insulted again.. Just 4 buildings + 1 robot? You built those and then wait... Totally nothing happens in the game, you just wait for resources (of course there is no speed button) and build "new" buildings (there are 4 total). Also no load/save.. Best free-to-play fps I've played. Each weapon is unique and takes some practice to master, but they are balanced nicely and are all fun to use. The movement and weapon mechanics make the gameplay well paced. Maps look very nice and play well, and the western theme is cool. It's not something you see very often, especially this well done. If you like fps, there's no reason not to try this game!. Had fun would play again. The core gameplay is not very fun and the game is a chore. Sorry.. Had fun playing it.
